14. [ ] (GO) Received a call from Mrs. Thelma Lanier, Assistant to Senator Strom Thurmond (R., S. Car.), requesting advice concerning the return of one [ ]. After checking with the Office of Personnel and CI Staff, advised Mrs. Lanier that the proper person to contact was Beatrice Fuhrman at AID on telephone code 182-7745. In response to my question, Mrs. Lanier advised that she had tried DOD and other Agencies and had gotten no place in attempting to get information for [ ] and so had called the Agency. She appreciated the Agency's assistance in providing information as to the proper office to contact. [ ]

15. [ ] (JSW) [ ] and John S. Warner met with Jim Gehrig, Staff Director, Senate Aeronautical and Space Sciences Committee, for approximately an hour. [ ] briefed Gehrig in considerable detail on what we knew concerning the recent Moscow Air Show. Mr. Gehrig said he might like to have Senator Anderson and Senator Smith briefed on this at a later date.

16. [ ] (JSW) Talked with Mr. Woodruff, Senate Appropriations Committee staff, and briefed him on the recent negotiations [ ]. He also indicated that the DOD Appropriations bill might go to the floor this coming Friday but it was more likely it would carry over until next Thursday.

17. [ ] (JSW) Met with Congressman William Bates who was interested in the progress of a young man whom he had referred to the Agency some time earlier for employment. [ ]

18. [ ] (JSW) Talked with Mr. Michaels, House Appropriations Committee staff, and briefed him on the recent negotiations [ ]. He understood the situation and had no particular concern.
